

Before the Dawning Sun

From Psalm 119:145-152

1. So then I cried with all my heart, Hear me, O LORD, I pray.
 2. I rose be - fore the dawn - ing sun, And I cried out in hope,

I will keep Your laws and stat - utes pure, A - gain I cry, please save me now,
 My eyes be - fore night watch - es here, That I might med - i - tate in truth.

And I hear will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law, cries,
 Please hear will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law, cries,
 And I will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law, cries,
 Please hear will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law, cries,
 Your Please ho - ly my law, cries,

And I hear will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law. cries.
 Please hear will in keep mer - cy ho - ly my law. cries.

3. O LORD, come now and quicken me
 According to Your Word.
 My enemies are drawing nigh,
 They follow after mischief here,
They wan-der off, far from Your law.

4. But You are near, my LORD and God,
 And Your commands are truth.
 Concerning all Your words and laws,
 I've known from ancient olden times
 That You forever spoke them here.
