

What, Ye Ask Me, Is My Prize?

1. What, ye ask me, is my prize? What the se - cret to be wise?
 2. Who the ground of my be - lief? Who from guilt doth give re - lief?
 3. Who doth com - fort me in woe? Who pro - tect me from my foe?
 4. Who by death hath con- quered death? Who re - ceives my part - ing breath?

What the wealth I val - ue most? What the name where - in I boast?
 Who my ran - som once hath been? Who for - giv - eth all my sin?
 Who re - vives my faint - ing soul? Who doth heal and make me whole?
 Who can grant me end - less rest? Who en - rolls me 'mid the blest?

Je - sus, Je - sus, Je - sus Christ, the cru - ci - fied.

Music: J. Cammin; harm. George Herbert Palmer (1842–1926)

Text: Johann Christoph Schwedler (1672–1730); tr. George Ratcliffe Woodward, 1904

WOLLT IHR WISSEN

7 7. 7 7. 4 7.