In Zion We Wait

Cont'd, Psalm 65:6-9, 11-13

5. ⁶You rose up in strength, and found - ed the hills.
 6. ⁸All men who now dwell be - yond ev - 'ry sea
 7. ⁹You vis - it the earth, and bring in Your train
 8. ¹¹Our year has been crowned with good - ness and cheer;

Your cloth - ing is pow - er; You do what You will.
 Will fear when Your to - kens will cause them to flee.
 A - bun - dance by show'r - ing this won - der - ful rain.
 Your paths drip a - bun - dance; it falls on us here.

⁷Your word calms the o - cean; the na - tions of men
 The dawn and the sun - set will both find their voice,
 The riv - er of God flows on filled to the banks.
¹²The hills cel - e - brate with the cat - tle and grain;

Are stilled from their tu - mult a - gain and a - gain.
 You make them go out and in go - ing re - joice.
 It brings to us grain and we bring to You thanks.
¹³They shout and they sing to the great God of rain.
