

O My People, Hear My Teaching

Cont'd, Psalm 78:12-25

6. ¹²He showed won-ders to their fa - thers While they were in E - gypt's land—
 7. ¹⁵In the de - sert God brought wa - ter From the rock to quench their thirst—
 8. ¹⁸⁻¹⁹*In the de - sert God they challenged: Can He sat - is - fy our taste?*
 9. ²¹When the LORD heard, He was an - gry, And His wrath broke out like fire;
 10. ²³To the skies He gave the or - der; Heav-en's doors He o - pened wide.

13 Split the sea and led them through it, Wa - ters heaped on ei - ther hand.
 Wa - ters brim - ming like the o - cean, ¹⁶Streams from rock - y crags that burst.
 20 When he struck the rock, it o - pened, Down the crag the wa - ters raced.
 Ja - cob knew His fierce dis - pleas - ure, Is - ra - el His right - eous ire.
 24 Man - na rained down for His peo - ple; Grain of heav - en He sup - plied.

14 With the cloud He led by day; Fire by night re - vealed their way.
 17 But they al - ways would de - fy And re - ject Him, God Most High.
Now our thirst is sat - is - fied, Can He food for us pro - vide?"
 22 Faith in God they cast a - side And His sav - ing pow'r de - nied.
 25 An - gels' bread lay at their feet; They had all that they could eat.
