

I Said to God, "I Trust in You"

From Psalm 16

1. ¹I said to God, "I trust in You, So do not let me per - ish.
 2. ⁴Their sor - rows shall be mul - ti - plied Who af - ter i - dols fol - low.
 3. ⁵LORD, You are my in - her - i - tance; You are my cup and birth - right.
 4. ⁷I bless the LORD who coun - seled me, And trained my med - i - ta - tion.
 5. ¹⁰You save from death which I de - serve, Your mer - cies know no mea - sure.

²You are my Lord, the good I do A - part from You is rub - bish."
 With their own God dis - sat - is - fied, In i - dol filth they wal - low.
Such grace is sheer ex - tra - va - gance: You're grant - ed to me out - right!
⁸My chos - en guide; the One I see; God is my sure foun - da - tion.
 Your Ho - ly One You will pre - serve, To give us wis - dom's trea - sure.

³As for the saints who dwell on earth, "To me they all
 Their blood - filled cups I will not give To si - lent gods
⁶The lines that You have drawn are sound; You've gift - ed me
⁹For this my heart is full of joy, My tongue* in glad -
¹¹The path of life You will un - fold; At Your right hand

* Acts 2:26

ex - cel in worth They are the friends I cher - ish."
 that do not live; Nor call on names so hol - low.
with pleas - ant ground, Main - tained by lov - ing fore - sight.
 ness I em - ploy; I rest in ex - pec - ta - tion.
 is joy un - told, And ev - er - last - ing plea - sure.