Who with per - fect life and death, Bought for me God's fa - vor,
 Who with pu - ri - ty en-dured Sa - tan's fierce temp - ta - tion,
 Suf - fered for a re - bel's sake, Bled for a blas - phem - er.
 For His sake, I noth - ing seek But to sing His sto - ry.

Set a - side His Heav'n-ly crown, Shed ma - jes - tic rai - ment,
 All the Fa - ther's per - fect Law Per - fect - ly o - bey - ing,
 He, the pure and spot - less Lamb, All my e - vil own - ing,
 What to me all earth - ly gains? What this vain world's treas - ure?

Donned a ser - vant's garb of flesh— Born to bear sin's pay - ment.
 All His vir - tue, all His good To my cred - it lay - ing.
 Bore the scorn, the nails, The wrath for my sin's a - ton - ing.
 He is all my wealth and peace. He is all my pleas - ure.
