3. 5 They view her walls with grief and fear.

Struck down with awe, they flee.

6 Like women struck with sudden pangs

Of birth's sharp agony,

7 Or ships struck by a strong east wind

That break up in the sea.

4. 8 In Zion we have seen performed

A work that was foretold;

A pledge that God, for times to come,

His city will uphold,

And there the mighty LORD of hosts

Will ever be extolled.

7. 12 Go compass Zion, count the tow'rs,
Of God's great citadel.
13 Her forts and palaces survey;
Observe their order well
That, with assurance, to your heirs
This wonder you may tell.

8. 14 This God is ours, and will be ours,
Whilst we in Him confide;
And He will keep us as His own
As long as we abide.
Till death, He is our sure defense,
Our refuge and our guide.
