

Cont'd

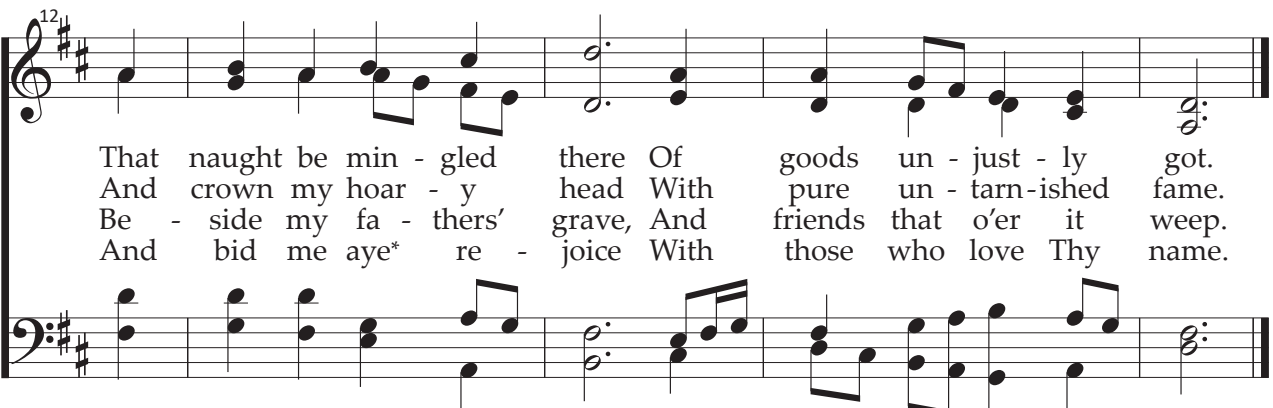

5. And let me be with all In peace and friend-ship liv - ing,
 6. And if a long - er life Be here on earth de - creed me,
 7. Let noth-ing that may chance, Me from my Sav - ior sev - er;
 8. And when the end is come And all the dead are wak - ing,

As far as Chris - tians may; And if Thou aught art giv - ing
 And Thou through man - y a strife To age at last wilt lead me,
 And, dy - ing with Him, take My soul to Thee for ev - er;
 Oh, reach me down Thy hand, Thy - self my slum - bers break - ing;

Of wealth and hon - ors fair, Oh, this re - fuse me not,
 Thy pa - tience on me shed. A - vert all sin and shame,
 And let my bod - y have A lit - tle space to sleep
 Then let me hear Thy voice, And change this earth - ly frame,

That naught be min - gled there Of goods un - just - ly got.
 And crown my hoar - y head With pure un - tarn-ished fame.
 Be - side my fa - thers' grave, And friends that o'er it weep.
 And bid me aye* re - joice With those who love Thy name.

* "Aye" rhymes with "day" and means "ever."
