

136a O Lord, Thy Judgments Give the King

From Psalm 72:1-8

1. <sup>1</sup>O Lord, Thy judg-ments give the king, His Son Thy right - eous - ness.
 2. <sup>3</sup>The loft - y moun-tains shall bring forth Un - to the peo - ple peace;
 3. <sup>4</sup>The peo - ple's poor ones He shall judge, The need - y's chil - dren save;
 4. <sup>5</sup>They shall Thee fear, while sun and moon Do last, through ag - es all.
 5. <sup>7</sup>The just shall flour - ish in His days, And pros - per in His reign:
 6. <sup>8</sup>His large and great do - min - ion shall From sea to sea ex - tend:

<sup>7</sup>2 With right He shall Thy peo - ple judge, Thy poor with up - right - ness.
 Like - wise the lit - tle hills the same Shall do by right - eous - ness.
And those shall He in piec - es break Who them op - press - ed have.
<sup>6</sup>Like rain on mown grass He shall drop, Or show'rs on earth that fall.
 He shall, while doth the moon en - dure, A - bun - dant peace main - tain.
 It from the riv - er shall reach forth Un - to earth's ut - most end.

Music: Musikalisches Hand-Buch, Hamburg, 1690

Text: Scottish Psalter, 1650

EFFINGHAM

8 6. 8 6.