

709b

That Man a Godly Life Might Live

Cont'd

7. Kill thou not out of e - vil will, Nor hate, nor ren -
 8. Be faith - ful to thy mar - riage vows; Thy heart give on -
 9. Steal not. Op - pres - sive acts ab - hor. Nor wring their life -
 10. Bear not false wit - ness, nor be - lie Thy neigh - bor by
 11. Thy neigh - bor's house de - sire thou not, His wife, nor aught
 12. God these com - mand - ments gave there - in To show thee, child
 13. Help us, Lord Je - sus Christ, for we A me - di - a - der ill for ill. Be pa - tient and of gen - tle mood, ly to thy spouse. Thy life keep pure, and, lest thou sin, blood from the poor, But o - pen wide thy lov - ing hand foul cal - um - ny. De - fend his in - no - cence from blame;

that he hath got, But wish that such his good may be of man, thy sin And make thee al - so well per - ceive
 tor have in Thee. Our works can - not sal - va - tion gain;

And to thy foe do thou good.
 Use tem - p'rance and dis - ci - pline.
 To all the poor in the land.
 With char - i - ty hide his shame. Have mer - cy, Lord!
 As thy heart doth wish for thee.
 How man un - to God should live.
 They mer - it but end - less pain.

Music: Pilgrim hymn, c. 1200s; harm. Bartholomäus Gesius, 1607
 Text: Martin Luther, 1524; tr. Richard Massie, 1854

DIES SIND DIE HEILGEN
 8 8. 8 7. w/ kyrie