

420b

The Fear of the Lord

Cont'd

5. The fear of the Lord Is low - ly and meek; The hap - py re - ward
 6. The fear of the Lord His mer - cy makes dear, His judg - ments a - dored,
 7. The fear of the Lord Con - firms a good hope: By this are re - stored
 8. The fear of the Lord For - bids us to yield. It sharp - ens our sword;

Of all that Him seek. They on - ly that fear Him The truth can dis -
 His right - eous - ness clear. With - out its fresh fla - vor In know - ledge there's The sen - ses that droop. The deep - er it reach - es, The more the soul
 It strength - ens our shield: Then cry we to Heav - en With one loud ac - cern, For liv - ing so near Him His sec - rets they learn.

 fault, In doc - trines no fa - vor, In du - ties no salt.
 thrives. It gives what it teach - es And guards what it gives.
 cord That to us be giv - en The fear of the Lord.

Music: David R. Erb, 2007 ©

Text: Joseph Hart, 1769

5 5. 5 5. 6 5. 6 5.