

29 LORD, Who Shall Dwell within Your House?

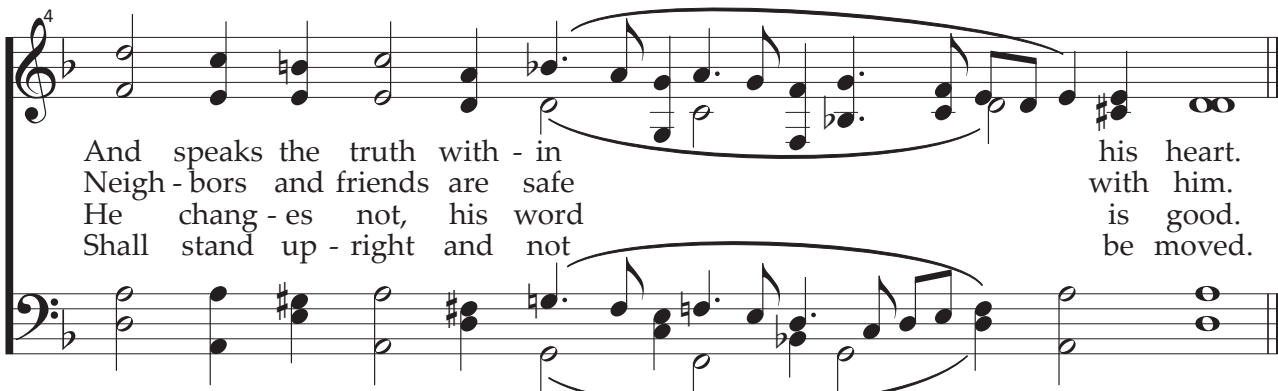

From Psalm 15

1. <sup>1</sup> LORD, who shall dwell with - in Your house? Who shall as - cend
 2. <sup>3</sup> He does not back - bite with his tongue; He does no e -
 3. <sup>4</sup> This good man's sight con - demns the vile; He hon - ors those
 4. <sup>5</sup> He takes no u - su - ry at all; He takes no bribe

Your ho - ly hill? <sup>2</sup> On - ly the one who walks in right vil to his friend; slan - ders and lies he will not hear;
 who fear the LORD. When he has sworn to his own hurt, to hurt the good. That man who does these bless - ed things

And speaks the truth with - in his heart.
 Neigh - bors and friends are safe with him.
 He chang - es not, his word is good.
 Shall stand up - right and not be moved.

Music: Heinrich Schütz, 1628

Text: Douglas Wilson, 2001 ©

WER WIRD, HERR [BECKER 15-1]

8 8. 8 8.