The Loving-Kindness of the LORD

Cont'd, Psalm 89:37-41

36. ³⁷ His daugh-ters shall be sweet and fair, As is the lu - nar light;
37. ³⁸ But Thou hast with ab - hor - rence spurned And Thine a - noint - ed left;
38. ³⁹ The cov - e - nant is of no trust, If thus his days he drag,
39. ⁴⁰ A - round his bor - ders are in - fringed, And all the tow'rs he barred;
40. ⁴¹ All those that pass a - long the road, Up - on his goods en-croach,

That faith - ful type of heav'n - ly care And bless - ing of the night.
Thine own to in - dig - na - tion turned, And of Thy grace be - reft.
And o'er his crown, de - filed in dust, His foes blas - pheme and brag.
The moats filled up, the gates un-hinged, The strong mu - ni - tions marred.
And ev - 'ry neigh - bor comes to goad His con-science with re - proach.
