

12. ³¹ Let all then thank their Sav - ior With shouts of joy - ful praise,
 13. ³³ In - to dry land He chang - es The fields where streams a - bound.
 14. ³⁵ In - to cool streams He chang - es A thirst - y de - sert land.
 15. ³⁷ He grants them fields for sow - ing And vine - yards to pre - pare;
 16. ⁴⁰ God pours con - tempt on princ - es When they His own op - press,
 17. ⁴² The up - right with e - la - tion God's might - y works ac - claim;

32 Ex - tol His love and fa - vor, Shown in such won - drous ways.
 Clear springs and ver - dant rang - es He turns to thirst - y ground.
 In parched and bar - ren rang - es Flow springs at His com - mand.
 38 In har - vests o - ver - flow - ing They see God's won - drous care.
 Drives them with their pre - tens - es In - to the wil - der - ness.
 The wick - ed of all na - tions Are si - lent, put to shame.

Let them break out in song With - in their con - gre - ga - tion.
 34 To salt - y wastes He turned A land of fruit and flow - er
 36 There He re - veals His grace, Shows hun - gry ones His pit - y,
 His fa - vor does not cease; Their gar - ners they re - plen - ish.
 41 He, lift - ing them from woe, His peo - ple does re - mem - ber;
 43 Let then the wise re - gard All this with awe and won - der,

Let Him be praised a - mong The el - ders of the na - tion.
 Be - cause its peo - ple spurned His words of truth and pow - er.
 Al - lows them in that place To build them - selves a cit - y.
 In num - ber they in - crease; Their herds do not di - min - ish.
 Like flocks their fam - 'lies grow, For He adds to their num - ber.
 And, turn - ing to the LORD, Let them His mer - cy pon - der.
