

The Mighty God Who Reigns on High

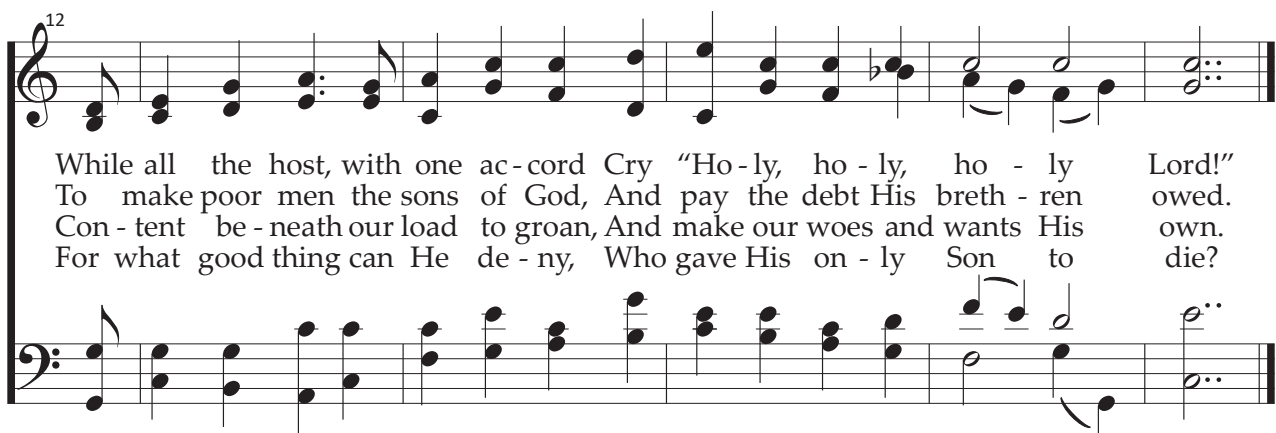

1. The might - y God who reigns on high, In - hab - i - ting e - ter - ni - ty;
 2. This God, though hum - ble is His love, Stoops to be - hold the thing a - bove.
 3. With sin - ners —con - de - scen - sion great! — With sin - ners Je - sus deigned to eat;
 4. Now, Christ - ian, of - fer pray'rs and praise! Ac - know - ledge Him in all your ways!

Who makes the Heav'n of heav'ns His throne, The ho - ly, high and loft - y One,
 But low - er still that love can go, And stoop to vis - it worms be - low.
 And tempt - ed in the de - sert vast, For sin - ners He vouch - safed to fast.
 Nor alms nor fast - ing dis - es - teem; For God ac - cepts them all in Him.

Be - fore the splen - dor of whose rays The bright - est an - gel veils His face,
 His roy - al state a - side He laid, Came down to earth, a Man was made,
 Hun - ger and thirst with will - ing mind He un - der - went, nor once re - pined,
 Fear not; thy gra - cious God in love Your pray'rs will hear, your fasts ap - prove.

While all the host, with one ac - cord Cry "Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly Lord!"
 To make poor men the sons of God, And pay the debt His breth - ren owed.
 Con - tent be - neath our load to groan, And make our woes and wants His own.
 For what good thing can He de - ny, Who gave His on - ly Son to die?
